

Frederick County, Virginia

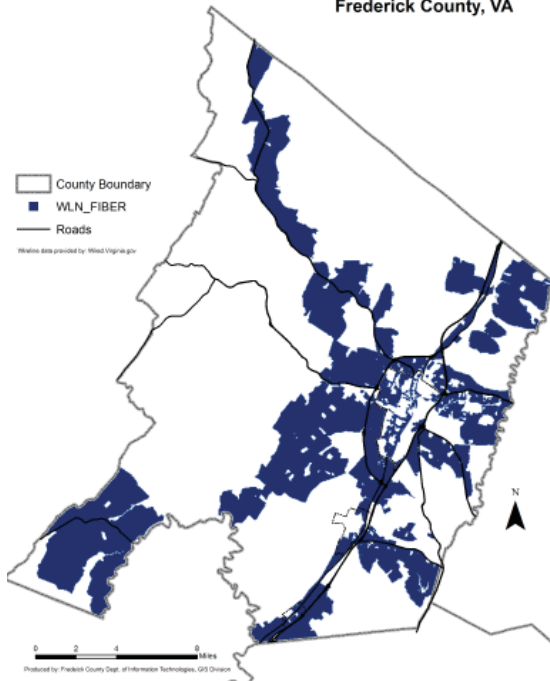

— Connectivity

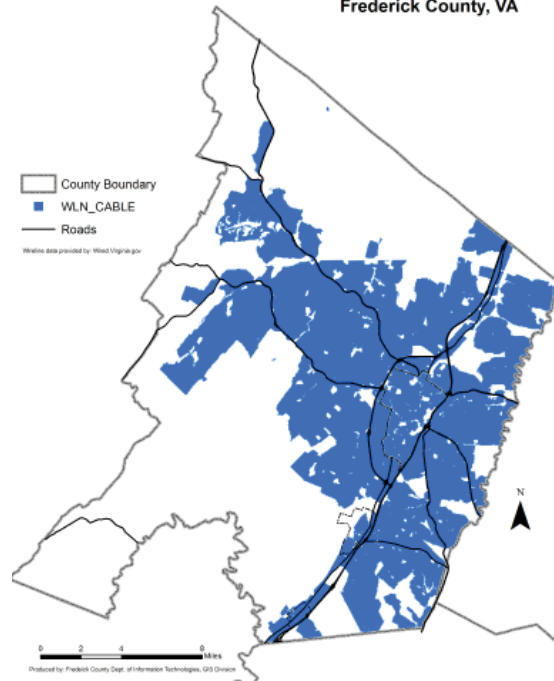

Local telecommunications providers include Verizon, Comcast, and Shentel. The region is served by a robust fiber network linking major commercial and institutional centers with regional and national providers. Major long distance carriers include AT&T, Level 3, Verizon, and Comcast, among others. Phone and data services are available through all of these providers.

Wireless data and voice services are available throughout the region. The region has extensive 4G LTE mobile data service coverage. The Commonwealth of Virginia asserts there is 100% cellular data coverage in Frederick County. Providers include Verizon Wireless, T-Mobile, AT&T, Sprint, and nTelos, among others.

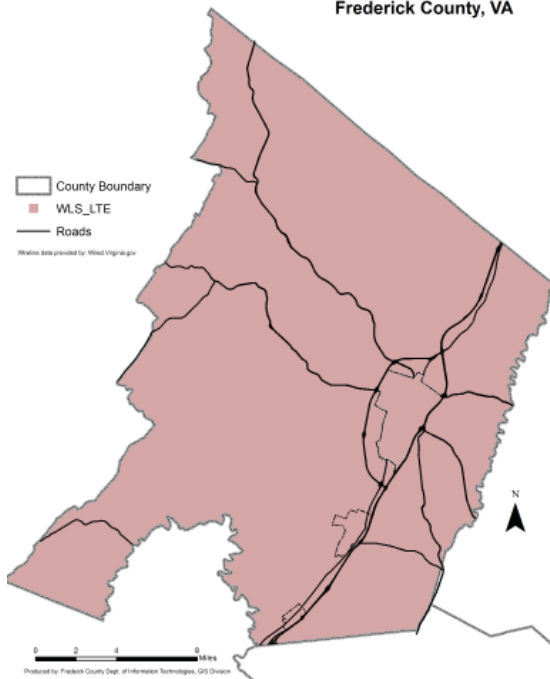

Fiber Infrastructure
Frederick County, VA

Cable Infrastructure
Frederick County, VA

LTE Infrastructure
Frederick County, VA

4G Infrastructure
Frederick County, VA

